

The Mazelière loop

Les Orres

(AgenceKros)

This loop will enable you to discover the important natural and historical heritage hidden away in the Eyssalette valley.

This long loop will give you the chance to take in the fresh air along the Eyssalette torrent, crossing the Sources de Jérusalem and winding through the undergrowth.

Throughout the route, you can enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding peaks, the resort and the hamlet of Les Orres.

Markings :  Trail

Cities : 1. Les Orres

Altimetric profile

Min elevation 1509 m Max elevation 1971 m

1. From the tourist office, follow the departmental road towards Embrun as far as the junction between Les Orres 1650 and Les Orres 1800. On the right is the Estomac car park. From the entrance to the latter, cross the road to reach the single track you started on
2. Descend towards the hamlet of Pralalègre and cross the bridge of Mazelière. Follow a smooth path as far as the Roche Blanche bridge. Turn left onto a single track through undergrowth, which climbs up to reach the Gautier sheepfold.
3. Follow the track to the Jerusalem springs: don't forget to turn right. At the barrier, descend to the right and cross the springs to reach an old canal.
4. Continue along the path and enjoy the view of the resort. At the Vallon hut, turn right. Follow the PR signs on this beautiful descent that leads to the path alongside the Baratier canal, which you must follow until you reach the Roche Blanche bridge.
5. From this point, return the way you came.
